THE DANCING.

Latest Reports from the Indian Uprising.

SITUATION GROWING CRITICAL.

Numerous Bands of the Rosebud Indians En Route to the Pine Ridge Agency, for What Purpose is Unknown—More Troops Ordered to the Front.

OMAHA, Nov. 24.—Latest reports from Pine Ridge are not so reassuring as those received last night. It is admitted by the authorities at the agency that a numerous band from Rosebud is en route to Pine Ridge through the purpose of the visit is not vouchsafed. Short Bull and Jack Red Cloud, who have been leaders of the ghost dancing at Rosebud, deny any hostile intentions and say that the dancing has been stopped.

The dancers are coming into the agency in squads, preparing to draw their rations. Much loud talk is heard but the Indians mainly disclaim any hostile intentions. This attitude, however, does not satisfy either Gen. Brooke or Agent Royer. The fear is now that many of the dancers will decline to come to the agency for rations but will prefer to organize inursions into the country bordering on the reservation.

In order that this phase of the question may be properly met, Gen. Brooke has ordered a large body of troops to Rushville. Yesterday companies E, F, G and H of the Second Infantry, commanded by Capt. Ames, Ohio, Keller and Clarke, left Fort Omaha on two special trains and will reach Rushville at 4 a. m. Monday. Companies A, C, E and G of the Twenty-first Infantry from Fort Sidney, commanded by Lieut. Brooke and Capt. Elstein, Duncan and Boyer, the whole in charge of Lieut. Col. Poland, are now en route by special train from Columbus, Neb., to Rushville. Col. Guy V. Henry, with one troop of the Ninth cavalry from Fort McKimby, is also on his way there. The other troops in this department of the state are under marching orders, and can soon be centered at the scene of trouble. This move is intended first to cut off raiding parties if any leave the reservation, and second to support Maj. Rutter's command at Pine Ridge should he need re-inforcements. Gen. Brooke's headquarters will continue at Pine Ridge.

AT GEN. MILES' HEADQUARTERS.

Some Startling Dispatches From the Pine Ridge Agency.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Gen. Miles was not allowed to go undisturbed yesterday, for early in the morning he received a dispatch at the Ruchelstein hotel from the commander of the troops at Rosebud, and stated that the Indians there and at Pine Ridge were preparing to advance on the troops at Pine Ridge. One of the chiefs was to stab Gen. Brooke and that was to be the signal for a general rising. Whether the stabbing was to be done by one of the chiefs who are at Pine Ridge, and who are supposed to be friendly, or whether the general was to be singled out in an attack made by the warriors from Rosebud, was not stated, but for the time being it made Gen. Miles anxious, and he eagerly awaited news from Gen. Brooke.

Later a dispatch was received from Gen. Brooke which made no mention of any attack, and Gen. Miles said he supposed the Indians had changed their minds.

In answer to a question as to whether any more troops were moving against the Indians, the general said that there were, but he was not at liberty to say what number or where they were from. "There are some white men," said the general, "somewhere along the line that manages to convey to the Indians all the news that is sent by the wires, and consequently it will not do for me to give out information."

Hunters Driven Out.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 24.—A hunting party consisting of Hamp Stone, H. C. Houghland, Thomas Boynton and Alex. Askey, citizens of Ashland, went down into the strip a few days ago on a hunting expedition. They had permits from the deputy marshal. They went into camp Saturday, thirty miles southwest of Caldwell. Seven Indian scouts soon appeared and ordered them out of the strip. They produced their permits, but the Indians refused to recognize them. The party were disarmed, ropes tied around their necks and attached to the saddles of the scouts who started north. The hunters were compelled to march at a lively speed until within five miles of the state line, where they were released. Their horses, camp equipments and arms were confiscated. The party will report the matter to the government authorities.

Troops Ready to Move.

FORT NIobrara, Neb., Nov. 24.—Lieut. Col. Smith, Eighth Infantry, in command of the troops at Rosebud agency, has telegraphed the department commander that the Indians at that agency are defiant and that he will need more troops in order to sustain any offensive operations. Additional transportation has been ordered to supply the camp with forces and subsistence. The situation is becoming more serious daily. Other troops than those already massed are under orders to move, and the indications are that a sufficient force will be concentrated soon to either awe the Indians into submission or elsewhere give them a respectable thrashing at the hands of United States troops.

The generals directing the present operations are not believed to be in favor of the lenient and parleying policy so often adopted heretofore, which generally averted bloodshed, but always left the Indians in an independent attitude.

The situation at Pine Ridge is believed to be much the same as at Rosebud and the evil disposed Indians of both agencies are said to have an appointed rendezvous near the dividing line between the two agencies and contiguous to the bad lands, into which they can escape in case of disaster.

ALARMING RUMORS.

An Outbreak Feared Within the Next Forty-Eight Hours.

FOREST CITY, S. Dak., Nov. 24.—Settlers along the Missouri river from this point northward for one hundred miles are in a paroxysm of excitement over the prospects of an outbreak by the Sioux in the next forty-eight hours. Rumors of the most alarming character are constantly coming in to agitate the people, and as the nearer troops are at Forts Bennett and Sully in the south, and Fort Yates on the north, there is some reason for their disposition to regard the outlook with apprehension.

It was reported yesterday morning that seven settlers had been killed opposite the village of Le Beau, by several parties crossed the river at that point during the afternoon and report bearing nothing of a massacre. The rumor seems to have arisen from the fact that twenty or fifty Grand River Sioux have been shooting game in that vicinity the past day or two and have shown more than usual insolence to the whites, though they profess to have no warlike intentions.

Surveyors' Camp Attacked.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 24.—A Blunt, S. Dak., special to The Tribune says: Benjamin and Bernard Bowers, who had been with the Midland railroad surveying outfit, returned to Blunt at 7 p. m. yesterday. They report that at about 11 o'clock Friday night, while camped about eighty miles west of Pierre, the camp was surrounded by about fifty Indians, painted and equipped for war, and with hideous yells and flourishing their guns, war clubs, etc., cut their way through the tents and bounced in and out, without doing any bodily harm. They finally left, when the gang of surveyors broke camp at 4 a. m. Saturday morning and started for Fort Pierre, where they arrived about midnight of Saturday, having traveled all day without anything to eat. Whether or not the surveying party was on the recently ceded lands or the reservation was not learned.

REACHING A CRISIS.

Every Movement of the Hostiles Carefully Watched.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. Dak.—Nov. 24.—The situation is certainly grave. The trouble is slowly reaching a crisis. The danger of the Indians camping in a circle about the agency became so apparent Saturday night that orders were issued yesterday for them to move to a barren sandy plain at the foot of the buttes to the north and along Wolf creek. In these places they will all be within the range of the Gatling and Hotchkiss guns.

About noon the cries of the different bands called out to the Indians to strike their tents and round up their horses and move to the new camping ground. The change was made within an hour and a half. Then it was discovered that nearly every tepee sheltered a carbine or a Winchester, but no effort was made to confiscate these arms.

Agent Royer has also received authority from Washington to hire one hundred scouts. The camp for miles around is now patrolled night and day by Sioux policemen, who are armed with Winchester and who are watching the movements of the hostiles.

Over 24,000 rounds of ammunition have come for the troops of the Ninth cavalry and 60,000 for the Gatling and Hotchkiss guns.

Ex-Indian Agent McGillicuddy came here yesterday in response to an urgent request of Gen. Brooke. McGillicuddy has the record of being one of the most fearless agents ever in the employ of the government. The two men have been in conference ever since. It is reported that McGillicuddy is in favor of crushing the Indians without unnecessary delay.

SOLDIERS FROM ST. LOUIS.

A Special Train Sent to the Scene of the Trouble.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 24.—Gen. Wesley Merritt, commander of the department of the Missouri, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning received instructions from headquarters of the army in Washington to send troops at once to the Pine Ridge agency, the scene of the Indian trouble. Gen. Merritt accordingly accorded a regiment of the Seventh cavalry consisting of eight companies of about 600 men, under command of Col. Forsythe, and a company of artillery with a battery of four guns, commanded by Capt. Campton, from Fort Riley to the scene of the trouble. The troops left by special train.

Gen. Merritt said: "I do not know how serious the trouble is, and, of course, cannot say whether more troops will be sent or not. Of course they will be sent if necessary. I have really no information to go further than that the orders were received from headquarters at Washington, and I have acted accordingly."

It is learned that every soldier in the department of Missouri is in readiness to start for Dakota at a moment's notice.

Awaiting Marching Orders.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 24.—The four troops of cavalry at the fort have received orders to remain in the post under marching orders. If sent from here they will go to Bismarck and from there to the Pine Ridge agency. Eleven thousand pounds of rations and ammunition for the Seventh cavalry were shipped from Fort Leavenworth by express last night to Rushville, Neb. Orders were also received to send all the mules at the garrison to the scene

COMING CONGRESS.

Members Arriving on Nearly Every Train.

PROSPECTIVE LEGISLATION.

Work Already Mapped Out by Different Statesmen to Keep Both Houses Busy Seven Hours a Day Until the End of the Session.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Nearly every train arriving from the west brings to the capital one or more members of the Fifty-first congress, the last session of which will convene on Monday next. By the middle of this week the capital city will have settled itself for the usual gaieties and hustling which invariably accompany the short sessions.

Work sufficient to keep the respective houses busily engaged seven hours each day until spring time has been mapped out by different statesmen who have been interviewed upon their arrival here. At the present writing no definite idea can be given as to what will engage the time of the session, beyond consideration of the several regular appropriation bills.

The indications warrant the assertion that the pension appropriation bill will be the most earnestly debated measure, owing to the enormous proportions it is reaching. There are apparently many Democrats in the house of representatives who desire an extra session of the Fifty-second congress, and believe that it is their policy to work to that end. Leading Republicans stand ready to encourage such a movement on the part of their opponents, believing that its effect will result in great benefit to the Republican party at the next election.

Speculation, of course, runs very high on either side of the question and almost any opinion sought may be obtained with plenty of statements ready to father it. The silver men are determined if possible to force through a free coinage bill. They are strongly impressed with their ability to accomplish the work in the senate, where they will have the assistance of the new senators from Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

There will not be sufficient strength, however, to carry such a bill over a presidential veto, which is almost certain to follow its passage; although some of the strongest adherents to free coinage express the belief that the president will not antagonize such a measure after giving it mature consideration. The recent Democratic successes, it is claimed, will figure greatly to their advantage.

Regretative Lodge, of Massachusetts, is of opinion that the house will certainly pass an apportionment bill and that the senate will complete the work of the majority by passing the elections bill. He thinks Mr. Mills will win the speakership contest. Many Republicans entertain this opinion.

The announcement that a strong lobby is on its way to Washington with a view to securing the enactment of legislation, which will lead to the disfranchisement of the Mormons, has created quite a commotion in political circles. There are two bills now pending in the respective houses, which propose to take the privileges of the franchise from any person aiding, abetting or countenancing polygamy, or who may be attached to any institution that does.

Friels of the Mormons hold that to pass either of these measures would be very unjust, as the Mormon church has sincerely acknowledged allegiance to the laws of the United States. It does not appear, however, that there will be any time for the consideration of such bills during this session.

Senator Vance, who has had so much trouble because of his opposition to the sub-treasury bill, is quoted as having said that he will gladly co-operate with any friend of the measure in congress to put the idea of the bill into a shape conformable with the constitution. It is believed that this statement will facilitate the closing of the chasm between Mr. Vance and the North Carolina senatorship.

THIEVES RUN IN.

Chicago Police Capture an Exceedingly Dangerous Gang.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Eight desperate thieves were arrested yesterday by the Desplains Street station police. For two months they have lived within the shadow of the station, but so clever were they that their presence was not known until a day or two ago. Four bold safe robberies and innumerable thefts are laid at their door.

Since Friday night the police have been guarding a small cottage at 121 West Washington street, where members of the gang were seen to enter, and yesterday the officers raided the cottage and arrested six men and two women, with but little resistance. The police claim they are the parties who robbed the safe at the Lake street depot of the Illinois Central railroad, Booth & Sons' safe, and also the stealing of a box of Millionaire Keller's buggy, containing bonds, mortgages, etc., valued at $100,000, last week.

Trying to Overthrow the Pettit Verdict.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 24.—Something of a sensation in the Pettit case was brought to light Saturday. George Boland, of Garfield, has made affidavit that Fred Imel, one of the jurors, expressed an opinion upon the case previous to the trial. Imel was in the city Saturday, and said that he knew that Boland had made such affidavit, but it is a falsehood.

Failed for Nearly $4,000,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—The United States Rolling Stock company, having a large plant at Hegewisch, has been placed in the hands of a receiver. The liabilities are given at $3,818,000, and the assets at $6,053,000.

BURGLARS' RAID.

A Number of Places in Carey, O., Visited by Thieves.

CAREY, O., Nov. 24.—This town is all excitement over the perpetration of a number of burglaries early Saturday morning. Frank Bare is the night officer, and shortly after 1 o'clock he was approached by a tramp who asked for lodging in the prison quarters for the night. The officer started towards the village prison with the man, and when within a few steps of the lockup, two other trampish looking fellows stepped out from a sort of by-way and attacked the officer, one striking him a blow on the head with some heavy instrument or edged piece of iron, which felled him.

The ruffians bent him fearfully, producing a half dozen wounds and bruises on his face and head. They then tied his hands and feet with a heavy twine tied a knot in a large handkerchief, placed it in his mouth and held it there by tying the corners back of his head. Next they bound his body and limbs with a heavy rope, then relieved him of the key to the prison, four dollars in money and his revolver, and finally carried him into one of the prison cells and locked him in. A pilgrimage of burglaries then began. Almost a dozen business places were entered.

Their last visit was to the office of the Galt hotel where they made the clerk, Raymond Pether, throw up his hands. They went through his pockets and secured, among other things, a silver watch and chain. Their plunder altogether consisted of jewelry, hardware, tobacco, groceries and a small amount of money. The unfortunate officer was not relieved until 5 o'clock when he was discovered by Marshal Brown. He is severely wounded. He is unable to give a very accurate description of his assailants. At this writing no clew of the marauders has been obtained.

MAC DOG SCARE.

A Boy and Several Horses Bitten before the Rabid Animal Was Killed.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 24.—The community east of Ellettsville has been having a mad dog fright. Last Sunday afternoon Willie Cowden, about 15 years old was playing about the house. A strange dog attacked him, and before the animal could be driven away his hand was almost bitten off. The dog left the house at once, and soon a number of men were in hot pursuit but it was not overtaken and shot until Friday.

The dog bit two valuable horses for Robert Cowden and a number of hogs for Dora Cowden. The animal attempted to bite John Cowden also, but he escaped by climbing a tree, where the dog watched him for an hour. The boy was taken to Whitehall, where a family by the name of Sagsdale have a madstone. The stone was applied to the wounded hand, and adhered and filled with poison four different times. At last reports the boy's condition was very dangerous. There is great excitement in the neighborhood, and the children that have attended school are being kept at home until further developments are known of the ravages of the dog.

SHOCKED IN THE AIR.

A Lineman Receives One Thousand Volts of Electricity and Lives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—L. W. Morgan, while repairing a wire Saturday night on Kearney street, belonging to the California Electric company, received the full force of 1,000 volts of electricity. The wire was forty-three feet from the ground, from which Morgan hung by his hands.

A fellow-workman tried to bring him down, but his grasp on the wire could not be broken and the wire had to be cut. Morgan dropped unconscious into the arms of his rescuer, who brought him safely to the ground. The palm of Morgan's hands were burned to the bone, and after regaining consciousness, he suffered intensely. Thousands of persons witnessed the accident and great excitement prevailed. Morgan will probably recover.

Coal and Kolin Discovered.

MITCHELL, Ind., Nov. 24.—Quite an excitement has been developed at Huron, a village twelve miles west of here, on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, by the discovery of coal. J. D. Van Dyke has a four-foot vein that has been followed fifty feet into the bluff in which it outcrops. Several other veins have been discovered. In appearance it is similar to Pittsburg coal, except that it has a glassy appearance. It burns well. A vein of kolin near this village was sold a short time ago for $50,000. This part of the state is beginning to awaken to a realization of the fact that it has a large amount of mineral wealth.

Crushed to Death at a Barn Raising.

NEWARK, O., Nov. 24.—A shocking and fatal accident happened to Mr. Harvey Richards, of Lima township, this county. He was engaged with others in raising a barn on the farm of George Beem, when some of the timbers gave way. Mr. Richards was caught beneath them, and crushed so badly that he died a few hours later, after suffering intensely. Three ribs protruded through the flesh, and one leg was broken in two places. He was aged 50 years, and leaves a wife and five children.

Scourged by Night Riders.

HILLSBORO, Ind., Nov. 24.—Early Friday morning a party of White Caps visited Robert Johnson, a painter, a few miles north of here, and administered a severe whipping. After being released, the report was spread that he had tried to fire his house, and the party returned. Johnson was again whipped with brutal cruelty until he was covered with blood. Drunkenness and wife beating are alleged against him as the grounds of the outrage.

CLOTHING

Some More Light Thrown on Bill McKinley's Bill—A Cincinnati Man Talks.

"Since the McKinley bill went into effect, a few weeks ago, no branch of the mercantile industry has been more affected than the dry goods business," said a well-posted Cincinnati clothier to the Evening Post of that city a few days ago.

"Especially has this been the case in the manufacture of clothing and cloaks, in which industry Cincinnati is an acknowledged leader.

"The majority of the linings and trimmings used in the manufacturing of clothing being imported, the tariff on which has, in most instances, been doubled, it is safe to assume that the price of ready-made clothing must, ere long, also advance.

"One of the materials used in every article of clothing manufactured, is canvas. This has been altogether imported from Scotland heretofore, and the canvas trade of this country has always been in the hands of the Canny Scotch. Since the advent of the McKinley bill this staple article has advanced 50 per cent., and as shortly as three days after the tariff bill passed, Ahe, Block & Co., the well-known Vine street clothiers, in purchasing a bale of canvases, were compelled to pay an advance of $30 a bale.

"American manufacturers of buttons appeared before the House committee and claimed that if protected by a sufficient tariff they would be able to compete with French manufacturers of pearl buttons. The duty was in consequence made so heavy that but few were imported, and as the manufacturers failed so far to market their product, that article has become quite scarce and will not be used as extensively as formerly on summer clothing.

"The same can be said of all lining materials, such as serges, Italians, satins and elks, and the effect on linings has been so marked that one of the largest importing houses in that line, Hermann Bernheimer & Sons, of New York, who have been represented in this market for years, have concluded to retire from the business, and are even now closing out their stock on hand.

"Corduroy is another article that has become greatly affected by the new tariff. This popular material, which in its finer grades is greatly used for hunting and riding costumes, but which is also largely used in its heavier grades by the laboring man, has been almost entirely withdrawn from the market, as the duty, which has heretofore been 80 per cent., has been advanced to 145 per cent. Mole skin, a soft-finish but very stout fabric, used very extensively in the manufacture of summer pants, and which is also made in Scotland, has suffered likewise.

"Of course it is claimed by the adherents of the McKinley bill that this very thing of a high tariff will advance the manufacturing of these articles at home, but as we have neither the raw material nor the skilled labor to do so now, we must pay the advanced tariff prices until our manufacturers are ready to market their products, which will then, no doubt, even exceed the price of the imported article."

The Railways.

The earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the second week of November show an increase of $17,269.40 over those for the corresponding week of last year. The figures are:

1890.....$158,680 36
1889.....141,419 96

Increase.....$ 17,269 40

During the period that Colonel Bennett Young was President of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road a new-fangled engine, which burned its cinders and consumed its smoke, was purchased, but it proved to be of little value, and most of the time the engine has been housed. A few months ago the new master mechanic commenced remodeling it, and last week it came out of the shops rebuilt for a first-class passenger engine. Yesterday it was put in service on the Indianapolis division, and hauled the vestibule train forty-seven and a half miles in fifty-seven minutes, and made four stops.—Indianapolis Journal.

Soldiers' Reunion.

A reunion of the soldiers who participated in the battle of Franklin will be held Sunday, Nov. 30th, at the G. A. R. hall in the court house, this city. All members of the Sixteenth Kentucky and survivors of the battle of Franklin are invited. Dinner will be served in the hall.

HORD LOUGHRIDGE and Bob Wilson, two "bad niggers" who figure frequently in the criminal courts, have been in the station house several days serving out sentences imposed by Mayor Pearce. Late Saturday afternoon Marshal Heflin started them for some coal, and they took advantage of the opportunity and skipped out. The police were instructed to be on the watch for the couple, and that night Deputy Marshal Bland found them at the colored restaurant on Wall street. Loughridge resisted arrest and in the scuffle that followed blacked the officer's eyes badly, and scratched and bruised his face, but he and Wilson were finally landed behind the bars. They will crack rock for the city for some time to come.

Mrs. Lizzie Lewman Gets the Prize.

The firm of Hechinger & Co. offered a gold-handled silk umbrella some time ago as a prize to the party describing in writing in the fewest words the correct solution of the square problem. Mrs. Lizzie Lewman, of Muse's Mills, Ky., has been awarded the prize. Postmaster Davis was the judge and the following is his decision:

Friend Hechinger: As my hair is getting too thin for cold weather, I decide with fear and trembling between the lady contestants for the prize you offer for solution of puzzle; but if you desire a solution that is so plain that "he who runs may read," the gold-headed umbrella should be forwarded to "Mrs. Lizzie Lewman, Muse's Mills, Ky.," with your compliments, free from any tax that the McKinley bill might impose. Very truly yours,
THOMAS A. DAVIS.

Here and There.

Mrs. Judge W. S. Lewis and son and daughter are guests of Captain John Armstrong, of "Edgewood."

Miss Anna C. Frazee arrived home Saturday afternoon from Richmond, Va., where she spent several weeks visiting friends.

SCHOOL NOTES.

BRASLEY SCHOOL No. 25.

This is classic ground, having been a prominent school in Mason more than forty years. The house is situated in a beautiful forest of native trees and in the same enclosure with good, old Beasley Church, where many generations have worshiped God, and in the neighborhood dwell still a people who have no superior in any section for integrity and all the better elements that constitute useful and valuable members of society. The trustees of this school are W. L. Holton and Wall Smoot. The teacher is Miss Mollie Bacon who has taught here nine years. Number of scholars 46. It is a very orderly school, the scholars paying good attention and seeming to be much interested in their studies. A class recited for us in decimal fractions, multiplication and division of decimals. The examples were well worked and scholars were required to explain the operation of each problem and when any errors had occurred, the work was criticised and corrected by members of the class, which is an excellent exercise. The scholars were not allowed to pass anything without understanding thoroughly what they did. We heard good classes in mental arithmetic and slate exercises. The method of requiring scholars to give the reason for their exercise is of great value as a mental exercise, as well as a means of perfecting and impressing the lesson firmly on the mind. Good classes in slate writing and primary reading. We left this school with a very pleasant impression of the way in which it is being conducted.

OSBORNE SCHOOL No. 27.

This school house stands upon a high and healthy elevation. Trustees are Robert Osborne, Scott Osborne and Mr. Lunsford.

The teacher of this school is Miss Nannie Bacon, a teacher with experience. Number of pupils 31. We heard classes in primary arithmetic and black-board exercises; all did well. Class in Ray's Practical Arithmetic showed good progress. Miss Bacon has been teaching this school only five weeks, and is under disadvantage, owing to irregularity in entrance of pupils, unavoidable at the beginning of a session, but Miss Bacon will soon have her school well classified and all will go well. We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne for kind hospitality. G. W. BLATTERMAN, Superintendent.

MINER'S MAXIMS

Those who rush too precipitately from one error,
Are apt, in their haste, to stumble across another.

Try a middle course.

There are dealers who vociferously announce that they are going to give you everything for nothing. There are dealers who calmly inform you that their reputation is costly and that they are going to charge you for it. Your experience with the cheap Johns drives you, perhaps, to the confessedly high price shoe man.

Content lies not in extremes.

You want good honest shoes and you don't want to pay too much for them. Try Miner's. They take too much pride in their reputation to sell you any part of it for money, but they believe that, having dealt with them you will add to their reputation by praising the high quality of their shoes and the moderate prices at which they are sold.

The Miners claim that you can obtain better goods at lower prices in their store than you can anywhere else. They back the statement with a long business career. Remember this: Not a pair of Shoes has ever been sold from Miner's under false representations.

What better card than the truth?

NO TARIFF ON SHOES!

Why cry tariff! tariff! when there is no increase in the prices of BOOTS and SHOES at our house in any article, while indeed we have lowered the prices in many lines. Note below a few figures that are scarcely worthy the name of price. They merely indicate the prices that rule throughout our mammoth stock and endless varieties:

MEAN BUSINESS.

Tobacco Growers of Mason Invite the Farmers of the White
Burley District

To Unite in the Establishment of Warehouses—Proceedings of Saturday's Meeting.

The tobacco growers of Mason County held another meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon, the principal object being to hear a report from the delegates who attended the growers' convention at Lexington Nov. 12th and 13th. Mr. John B. Holton presided and Dr. J. A. Reed and Mr. John C. Adamson acted Secretaries. The report was read by the Chairman, Mr. Holton. In reference to said Lexington convention the report says:

That was a large and enthusiastic meeting. Seventy-one counties of the State were represented, and all were united in purpose and harmonious in action.

The work accomplished by that convention was to provide for the incorporation of the "Kentucky Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association" and an attorney was employed to prepare the charter.

The capital stock of this association is to be $1,000,000, and it has the right to organize when $100,000 of this stock has been taken. The par value of one share of stock is $10. The number of shares which can be owned by any individual is not limited. The association is to have a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a board of eleven directors. No two of these are to be from the same county and seven of the number, at all times, are to be actual tobacco growers. So, the business of the association will always be controlled by the producers. When a sufficient number of shares have been taken the association proposes to build its own warehouses. The location of these warehouses is to be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Is this undertaking practicable? We claim it is, and that the resources warrant the association. There are 50 counties in our State which produce from 1,000,000 to 12,000,000 pounds of tobacco annually. The average production of these counties is upward of 4,000,000 pounds. The average number of farms to the 50 counties is about 1,700. It is safe to assume that at least out of the 1,700 produce tobacco. If only two-thirds of these would take three shares of stock each at ten dollars ($30) per share this would create a capital large enough for all purposes of the association. To be more specific let us take Mason County as a basis for our calculations. Mason County has wards of 1,700 farms. A large majority of these grow tobacco; but to be safe in our estimates we will claim 900 do. Six hundred (600) of these or two-thirds of the number taking three shares of stock each at ten dollars ($30) per share would make a fund of $18,000. We have already stated that the State has fifty counties that will average as well as Mason. These subscribing would make a capital of $900,000. This fund would be sufficient to pay the cost of constructing warehouses and leave a large residue for other purposes of the association. The business of these warehouses would be conducted on a similar plan to that of Cincinnati and Louisville warehouses, but not, by any means, under similar prices. Inspection fees, commission and insurance would be charged the shipper, and a reasonable fee would be charged the manufacturer. The fund accumulating from these charges would create dividends which, after deducting therefrom actual expenses, would be declared on the stock, and paid back to the producer, or share holder.

The warehouse fees for handling the crop of tobacco for our State alone amount annually to more than $1,000,000. The crop of tobacco produced in Kentucky in 1888 was 23,500 hogheads. The crop for 1889 was 150,000 hogheads. The future average crop will not be less than for the latter year. The rate for selling this tobacco whether in the Louisville or Cincinnati market is $7 per hhd. Let us see: The shipper is charged for inspection $2; for commission, insurance and storage, amounting to more than $1; and the manufacturer also pays a warehouse fee of $2; on each hhd, he buys; this makes $5; per hhd, without counting a loss of from ten to thirty pounds in weight on every hhd; sold, and rejection fees which more frequently amount to $2; than $1; the total fees being not less than $7, per hhd. The amount therefore paid in warehouse fees for selling the crop raised in our State alone amounts annually to $1,000,000.

By the co-operative plan we believe that $200,000 of this amount is more than ample to handle this tobacco. Thus would there be saved to the growers of our State the sum of $800,000 annually.

We have shown what would be the result to the State by the successful carrying out of this plan. Now to what extent would our own section be benefited? This depends largely upon whether we can establish a market in our own city.

Maysville is the heart of the largest burley producing area in existence. Thirty-six million pounds, or 30,000 hhd., of tobacco available to this city go to Cincinnati annually. This product is grown in Mason, Bracken, Robertson, Nicholas, Fleming, Lewis, Kenton, and Brown, Adams and Clermont counties, Ohio. This tobacco marketed here on the co-operative plan would save to these counties near $200,000 yearly. How much would Mason County be ahead by having a home market for her crop of tobacco?

Mason County produced in 1888 about 9,000,000 pounds; in 1889 about 8,000,000 pounds, or 6,500 hhd. Her future average crop will not be less. This marketed here on the co-operative plan would save the county at least $45,000 annually.

To what extent would a market in Maysville benefit other citizens? Maysville has the trade of Mason, Robertson and parts of Fleming and Lewis counties, this State, and Brown County, Ohio.

The yearly production of these counties is not less than 20,000 hhd. Sold in Maysville on the plan proposed would enrich the counties named at the rate of $140,000 annually. To Mason alone, we have already shown, there would be saved $45,000 of this amount. Now it is safe to assume that out of the $95,000 remaining, $50,000 at least would be in the hands of people who trade in Maysville. This with Mason's $45,000 would be $95,000 more money in the hands of your customers to be spent annually. Not only this, but it would bring to your city an increase of at least seventy-five people daily. The amount expended by these people would not be less than $150,000 yearly. In addition to this, we believe the dividends declared on the stock held by this association would pay 25 per cent. on the investment. Three hundred thousand dollars would be ample to build warehouse room and establish this enterprise in your city. If Maysville will take $75,000 of this stock we believe there are 1,200 farmers in Mason County who will take $75,000 more, and that Lewis, Fleming, Nicholas, Robertson and Bracken counties in our State, and Adams, Brown and Clermont counties in Ohio will take $150,000. Why? Because it will not only secure them a home market for their tobacco, but an honest and inexpensive one, and also pay them 25 per cent. on their investment. Let us see. We have already shown that the counties named raise about 30,000 hhd. of tobacco yearly. A charge of only $4 per hhd. in warehouse fees for selling this tobacco would make a revenue of $120,000 annually. We believe that $45,000 of this amount would pay all expenses of selling, thus leaving a net revenue of $75,000 annually to be distributed among the stockholders. This would be a dividend of 25 per cent. on the stock, which would, in four years, pay back to the stockholder the amount of his original subscription.

The matter for us to decide now is, whether we shall secure this home market—whether we shall only haul our tobacco to Maysville or pay $1 per hoghead and ship to Cincinnati—whether we shall longer pay to foreign corporations $54.00 annually, which should as well go into our own pockets; whether the producer shall submit idly to that extortion which is robbing him of hard earned profits. Maysville and Mason County should at once seek the co-operation of the adjoining counties and establish in their midst this great industry. J. B. Holton, Washington, Ky.

November 22, 1890.
The report was received and then on motion the Club appointed a committee of one from each precinct to select a committee of three in each precinct to solicit subscriptions to the fund to establish warehouses. This committee was composed of the following: Maysville No. 1, Squire Vioroy; Maysville No. 2, Squire Pickett; Dover, Scott Osborne; Minerva, Frank Boyd, Sr.; Germantown, Squire Mauten; Sardis, L. M. Marshall; Mayslick, John Shanklin; Lewisburg, James E. Cahill; Orangeburg, Pickett Boy; Washington, James Kirk; Maysville, Dr. J. W. Gault; Fern Leaf, S. M. Worthington; Chester, Henry Dietrich; Helena, Frank Costigan.

While this committee was out, Mr. R. M. Marshall, of Sardis, said he was willing to subscribe and do all he could to establish warehouses at Maysville, but he would not take stock in the State association—he did not want to scatter his money all over the State. He said other growers whom he had heard express themselves thought as he did, and he therefore suggested that the soliciting committee be furnished with two blanks, one for subscriptions to establish warehouses at Maysville and the other for subscriptions to the stock of the State association. A motion to that effect was adopted.

Mr. W. H. Robb thought a collection ought to be taken up to have necessary blanks printed and made a motion to that effect, but Mr. W. W. Ball said the Commercial Club would provide the blanks for subscriptions to establish warehouses at this point, and the motion was withdrawn.

Mr. W. LaRue Thomas, President of the Commercial Club, was called on and made a rousing speech. He said the Club would heartily co-operate with the growers in establishing warehouses at Maysville. This was a central location in the famous white burley district. Mason and the surrounding counties, in this State, and Ohio, produced annually about 33,000,000 pounds, and a market at Maysville would save the growers thousands of dollars yearly.

On motion, Dr. John M. Frazee and Messrs. Scott Osborne, Walter Mathews, S. M. Worthington and A. R. Glascock were appointed alternate delegates to the State meeting at Louisville the second Tuesday of December. A motion was then adopted that the Commercial Club be requested to send delegates also to that meeting.

The committee to select soliciting committees reported the following:

Maysville No. 1—J. W. Alexander, Wesley Vioroy, D. C. Frazee.
Maysville No. 2—J. J. Perrine, T. L. Holton, S. N. Robinson.

Orangeburg—T. P. Best, J. D. Mayhugh, B. H. Farrow.
Lewisburg—A. K. Marshall, J. E. Cahill, J. A. Curtis.

It was decided that another meeting be held in Maysville Dec. 6th, and that the soliciting committees make a report at that time.

On motion, the growers of Adams, Brown and Clermont counties, Ohio, and of Bracken, Pendleton, Robertson, Flem-

KING OF HOLLAND.

His Death Took Place Early Sunday Morning.

HIS LAST HOURS PEACEFUL.

The Palaces and Public Buildings Closed and All Amusements Cancelled—Militaristic Council Held—Other Foreign Dispatches.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 24.—The King of Holland died at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

His illness took a sudden turn for the worse Saturday evening, symptoms of uraemia appearing. The queen was at once summoned, and remained with her husband until his death. The king's last hours were peaceful.

WILLIAM III OF HOLLAND died quietly away. Immediately upon the announcement of the sad event the palaces and other public buildings were closed, and notices were posted of the cancellation of all amusements. The ministers were summoned and held a council at noon.

The death of the King of Holland is for more than one reason an important political event. The mental malady which has proven fatal, first showed its symptoms in an aggravated form many months ago, and it was thought then that the appointment of a regent would be necessary, but the king's partial recovery seemed to remove that necessity. His affliction was softening of the brain, and he was unusually quiet and almost comatose, but at times displayed great mental excitement.

Notwithstanding his notorious marital infidelities, Queen Emma has shown the utmost tenderness toward her slowly dying husband, so that the Prince of Nassau spoke of her a few days ago, in an address to the Luxembourg chamber as "that angel of devotion at his (the King's) bedside." With William III dies the direct male representation of the great house of Orange. He was the son of William II, but only connected collaterally with the famous William III of England.

The late king was born in 1817 and may have inherited his insanity from the Emperor Paul, of Russia, to whom he was related on the maternal side. He ascended the throne in 1849. His only issue is by his second wife, Emma, being a daughter, Wilhelmine, now 16 years of age. The king's death severs from Holland the Duchy of Luxembourg, which will probably become attached under the Duke of Nassau, to the empire of Germany.

An act of the Dutch parliament passed some years ago, provides for the succession to the throne of Holland in the event of the late king's family becoming extinct. Queen Emma is very popular, and will undoubtedly be continued as regent until her daughter attains her majority.

The states general has been called to meet on Dec. 5.

Fight Between People and Police.

DUBLIN, Nov. 24.—The citizens of Ennisborty defied the proclamation against meetings in memory of the Manchester martyrs, and assembled Saturday night with bands and banners to celebrate the anniversary. The police ordered the people to disperse, and on the command being disregarded they charged upon the crowd with drawn batons. The people resisted, and attacked the officers with stones and clubs, but the riot was finally quelled and the streets cleared.

Socialism Increasing in Italy.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Socialists took very little part in the elections at Milan yesterday, preferring not to disclose their strength until the general elections for members of the Italian parliament. It is believed that Socialism will then be found to have made remarkable rapid strides in Italy within the past year or so.

Nihilists Disguised as Peasants.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says that two persons, in the disguise of peasants, arrested for loitering in the vicinity of the Anitchkoff palace in that city, proved to be secretly armed, and one of them is suspected of being the Nihilist conspirator Kalobkoff, who recently escaped from confinement at Kharkov.

CRUSHED BY A WALL.

Collapse of the New Wells, Fargo & Co. Building in Jersey City.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 24.—The walls of a new brick building in course of erection by Wells, Fargo & Company, on Pavonia avenue, suddenly fell Saturday, burying a large number of men in the ruins. The police, firemen and ambulances were soon on the spot, and the work of extricating the buried men commenced.

George Banett was taken out dead, and an unknown Italian laborer so badly crushed that he will die. Nine other Italians and two American workmen were badly hurt.

The broken wall was twelve inches thick, and was too freshly built to stand the strain of the high wind which prevailed and the weight of the timbers and girders. A large portion of the pressed brick front on Pavonia avenue is badly bulged and cracked, and will have to be taken down.

Death of a Young Bride.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 24.—Mrs. William C. Springer, nee Courtwright, died Sunday with typhoid fever. She was only 15 years old and a bride of a few months. The sensational marriage of the couple is already still in the minds of the public. Miss Courtwright came to Columbus with her stepfather, Judge Friesner, and by prearrangement met Mr. Springer, who went to Covington, Ky., where they were married and telegraphed the news to her people. This was during the state fair time, about September 1.

TASCOTT-SNELL MURDER CASE.

A Pinkerton Detective Believes He Has a Clue to the Real Murderer.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.—Frank Golden, a Pinkerton detective, is in this city, and his errand bids fair to result in a sensational arrest in the Tascott-Snell murder case. Golden declares that Tascott did not murder Snell; that it was a relative who would be greatly benefited by Snell's death; that the murderer came to Cincinnati after committing the crime and deposited money and valuable papers to a large amount in a rented box of the Cincinnati Safe Deposit company.

Mr. Golden says: "Several of these papers, which represent great values, could have benefited only one man by their disappearance for the time being. If I can prove that the box does contain the much sought for documents, I can prove the murder on one man. I am certain that within a very few days we will have the real murderer of Snell behind the bars." Mr. Golden refuses to give the name of the suspected murderer.

Fatal Ending of a Saloon Fight.

MITCHELL, Ind., Nov. 24.—James Terrell was killed by John Feltner, known as Gen. Feltner, at Huron, ten miles west of here, last night. Both were residents of that village. They had a fight yesterday afternoon in George Feltner's saloon, but were separated. Terrell renewed the quarrel and shot at Feltner, but failed to hit him. He then began beating him over the head with the revolver. James Wolford, a friend of Feltner, then interfered, and while he held Terrell down, Feltner stabbed him. Terrell died in ten minutes. Feltner is under arrest. Terrell is about 40 years of age and leaves a widow and four children.

Looking Up an Old Crime.

WAUPACA, Wis., Nov. 24.—Tah Pryor, who was a policeman in this city at the time of the Mead murder in 1882, was arrested for complicity in the crime at Antigo, yesterday, and will be brought here. Pryor is one of four men in this city who were suspected at the time, but the evidence was too poor. The arrest of the others is expected in a day or two. The murder of Mead was an atrocious crime. He was in his bank at night and was stunned, then robbed and then the top of his head blown off with a shotgun. The arrest of Pryor is the result of the reward offered by the county board.

Killed in a Sand Bank.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 24.—James and Thomas McDonough, aged respectively 6 and 8 years, were killed yesterday by the caving in of a sand bank on Nineteenth street, opposite their home. The McDonoughs, in company with two other boys were playing in a pit when a sand bank over the pit gave way and buried them beneath it. The McDonough boys were taken out dead while the other two escaped with slight injuries.

Thinks He Is Dead and Won't Eat.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 24.—Wilkesbarre physicians are puzzled over one of the most singular cases that has ever come under their notice. John C. Farrell, ex-superintendent of the Wilkesbarre water company, a wealthy citizen of this place, has not eaten a morsel of food for two weeks. He persistently refuses to eat, insisting that he is dead and does not require food.

Riot About High Taxes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Latest steamer Janeiro advices say: Serious rioting has occurred at Hoihaw as a result of a tax imposed upon traders. Several of the mandarin's houses were attacked by rebels, who maltreated one of the collectors. The excitement rose to such a pitch that it resulted in a collision between troops and the people, in which four rioters were killed.

Disposed of a Livery Rig.

VIRGINIA, Ill., Nov. 24.—The man and woman who hired a team of Mr. Witte, a liveryman of Chandler's a few days ago, and who disposed of them near Viridian, Ill., were brought here last evening and are confined in jail. The man, who claims to be Smith, is in a precarious condition, the effects of arsenic, taken with suicidal intent. His recovery is doubtful.

Shelbyville Going in for Reform.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Nov. 24.—As the result of the Munhall revival meetings an era of reform has struck this city. The officers have closed out all the gambling dens, and served notice on all the saloons that they must close at 11 o'clock and keep closed on Sunday. The respectable people of both parties have joined with the officers in the suppression of vice of all kinds.

Toyed With a Loaded Revolver.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 24.—Miss Laura Douglass, daughter of a leading merchant at Seward, accidentally shot herself there yesterday morning, and has since died. She was toying with a loaded revolver, when it went off, and the ball entered her head and lodged somewhere near the base of the skull. The family comes from Everton, Mo.

Winter Weather in the Hudson Valley.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Winter weather now prevails along the upper Hudson valley. Snow fell throughout the night and to-day the ground is covered. At points throughout the Catskills it is from two to four inches deep. Ice has formed on interior ponds and skating begun.

Not a New Paper.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Nov. 24.—The recent rumor to the effect that the Catholic clergy of Chicago has raised a fund of $50,000 for the establishment of a new weekly publication in Chicago, to be the official organ of the archdiocese, appears to be without foundation. Dr. M. F. Egan, of Notre Dame university, positively denies that he is to assume editorial control of the proposed journal.

Fatal Runaway Accident.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.—A runaway occurred on the Highland pike, back of Newport, Ky., Sunday, in which Miss Julie Holeran and two young children of Robert Witt were so badly injured that they can hardly live. Mrs. Witt was badly hurt, but not dangerously.
